SENATE RESOLUTION 106
By Dixon

A RESOLUTION to commend Joseph Scott Grisham for extraordinary service as a legislative intern.

WHEREAS, throughout the course of each legislative session, this body is pleased to recognize certain persons who have committed themselves, through their adroit service, to the betterment of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Joseph Scott Grisham is one such individual who has distinguished himself in his role as a legislative intern for the Honorable Senator Roscoe Dixon; Joseph's work resulted in innumerable benefits for the legislator he assisted and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, Joseph is a student at the University of Memphis, where he is highly admired by his peers, has achieved academic success and participates in extracurricular activities; and

WHEREAS, throughout the 2000 legislative session, Joseph has surpassed all criteria with regard to the attributes of a devoted and conscientious legislative intern; and

WHEREAS, eager to familiarize himself with the characteristics and complexities of Tennessee state government and to assist in his studies, Joseph Scott Grisham brought his many abilities and expertise to Capitol Hill for the 2000 session of the One Hundred First General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, this gentleman has afforded himself many unique and valuable opportunities throughout his life's journey, including: Cataloguing Dr. Benjamin Hooks' Papers during a Graduate Assistantship at the University of Memphis, working as supervisor of Quality Control for National Safety Associates in Memphis, and serving as Student Coordinator for Bill Wheeler for Congress; and

WHEREAS, the son of proud parents, James and Hilda Grisham, Joseph's aspirations are to become a lawyer and lobbyist; and

WHEREAS, Joseph Grisham has performed his many duties with extraordinary insight and decorum; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, That we hereby commend Joseph Scott Grisham for outstanding service as a legislative intern and extend to him our best wishes for every future success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
